

International Conference on Flu

June 08-10, 2015 Chicago, USA

Rangaraj Selvarangan

Children's Mercy Hospital, USA

Clinical laboratory testing for detection of influenza

Biography

Rangaraj Selvarangan is director of microbiology laboratory and associate professor in department of pathology, University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC) School of Medicine. He completed his PhD in Medical Microbiology and Immunology, University of Texas Medical Branch, Galveston, Texas in 1994-2000. His main research interest in development of rapid molecular tests for laboratory diagnosis of infectious diseases.

rselvarangan@cmh.edu

Notes: