

25th Euro Congress and Expo on

DENTAL & ORAL HEALTH

October 16-18, 2017 | Budapest, Hungary

The Skills and Knowledge Needed To Start Using Implants in Your Daily Practice

Dustin Pfundheller

Dental surgeon, Singapore

The lecture will cover the skills and knowledge needed to start using implants in your daily practice. The participants will learn indications and contraindications to dental implant related treatment. They will understand how to treatment plan, place and restore dental implants in both the anterior and posterior regions.

Biography

Dr. Dustin Pfundheller is the world's most traveled surgeon and dentist. He compares the way dentistry is performed throughout the world - including Asia, Mideast, Caribbean, Africa, Pacific, Europe, Isolated/remote places, USA, and South America. Dr. Dustin Pfundheller is a general dentist who has been successfully performing braces for several years. He will cover the basics of bonding brackets, case selection, archwire sequence, leveling and finishing. Discussions will be done on how to recognize potential complications and when to refer to an orthodontic specialist. Dr. Dustin Pfundheller will cover the skills and knowledge needed to start using implants in your daily practice. Participants will understand how to treatment plan, place and restore dental implants in both the anterior and posterior regions.

dpfundheller@gmail.com

Notes: