

7th Global Dentists and Pediatric Dentistry Annual Meeting

March 31- April 01, 2016 Valencia, Spain

Sameh Samy Abdou

Egyptian Society of Dental Implants, Egypt

Keys to success for implants placement with immediate loading

The introduction of osseointegrated implants in dentistry represents a turning point in dental practice. The concept of immediate loading has recently become popular due to less trauma, reduced treatment time, high patient acceptance and better function and esthetics. A careful case selection, proper treatment plan, meticulous surgery and proper design of prosthesis are essential for optimal outcomes when this approach is adopted.

Biography

Sameh Samy Abdou obtained Diploma in Implantology from Sevilla University, Spain in 2007. He is a Consultant in Prosthodontics & Implantology and his private practice is limited to Prosthodontics & Implantology at Alexandria, Egypt. He continued dental implant course, at Royal College of Surgeon, Edinburg in 2005 and in Seville University, Spain in 2006-2007. He participated in Dental Education Programs in New York University in 2006. He served as a speaker & consultant of implantology courses at Alexandria Dental Syndicate in 2008 and speaker of Egyptian Association of Dental Implant 2009, DGZI congress at Damascus in 2009, Syrian Dental Association Congress in 2009-2010, Lebanese Dental Association Congress at Tripoli in 2010-2013, Sevilla Dental Implantology Congress in 2010 and in Tanta University Dental Implant Course, 2013. He is a Course Director of Egyptian Society of Dental Implant since 2009 and speaker of several national & international events.

sameh_samy2000@hotmail.com

Notes: