

4th Asia Pacific Congress & Expo on

Dental and Oral Health

July 27-29, 2015 Brisbane, Australia

The functional dental team

Krystal May

Choice Dental Consulting, Australia

The dental team can be of underestimated relevance to the success of the dental practice. Speaking to every member of the dental team, Krystal will touch the audience, igniting their passion for delivering outstanding patient care and service delivery. She will highlight the importance of a vision for the dental practice and the need to align the entire team with that goal. Krystal will touch on the topics of self-motivation, team playing and leading by example. The audience will be left with an inspired taste in their mouths, truly compelled to return to their dental practices with a new level of excitement and commitment.

Biography

Krystal May is a qualified dental assistant with a particular passion for educating dental teams. She has been involved in the dental industry for most of her life, witnessing first-hand the 'behind-the-scenes' running of her family's 2 dental practices and working in the industry for more than 14 years. Her passion for the dental world has grown as she has cemented her presence in the online forum with her successful dental blog Extreme Dental Practice.

krystalmay85@gmail.com

Notes: