The Hacked Unconscious Mind-The Root Cause of Cancer.

Angela Wilson

Achievers Resources, Brisbane, Australia.

Background: This talk aims to bring accurate thinking on cancer prevention and cure once and for all. The unconscious mind remains a mystery to the most. The human race will continue chasing tails for the real cure if this issue's hidden power and root cause is not revealed. Sigmund Freud said the unconscious mind is largely inaccessible, which occupies around 80% in the iceberg image of human minds. The manipulation from the unconscious mind triggers our consciousness, emotion, and physical body function. Without taking control, individuals can easily be trapped into cancer if the condition is right. Consequently, anyone can drive themselves to premature death or low quality of lifestyle due to cancer without awareness. Case analysis of famous people chosen from the news will enhance the viewpoint. A variety of real cases study, analysis and solutions will be shared on noise cancer, breast cancer, cervical cancer, liver cancer, and Prostate cancer. It will pursue an overview of misconceptions about the unconscious mind and the presentation of the author's unique position on the historical discovery of cancer research, bridging the gap between physical science and metaphysical science.
