EDITORIAL

As we all know that in the year 2020, Journal of Clinical and Cellular Immunology its 10th volume. As like previous volumes JCCI released issue annually without any delay and additionally, 1 conference proceedings were released Journal of Clinical and Cellular Immunology has provided fast-track peer-review process as like before with highly esteemed professionals and well renowned professors. AJMR is having the Journal impact factor is 2.3*.

JCCI functions on three principles i.e., scientific excellence, publication ethics and transparency. It makes mediatory that every article is submitted only through the online manuscript submission system managed by Longdom as the publisher.

Journal of Clinical and Cellular Immunology is the most preferred and highly accessed a peer-reviewed open access Journal in the field Immunology. At many instances editorial board members also prefer to submit their articles. Such practice is common in other reputed specialty Journals. In fact, JCCI encourages editorial board members to actively contribute. However, no special privileges are given to anyone. All the submitted manuscripts including editorials are subjected to strict peer review process. JCCI follows a double-blind peer review process where identity of reviewers and authors is not revealed to each other. The review generally involves three to six subject experts.

The editorial team consisting of associate editors and assistant editors are involved in the entire article cycle starting from submission to final acceptance. To minimize possibility of bias the entire review process is structured carefully. JCCI is supported by an outstanding Editorial Board of more than international researchers.

Over 100 articles were submitted in which 34 qualitative articles which include original research, review articles, case reports, short communications, image articles etc. On an average 4-5 articles are released for an issue according to the frequency of articles. In an average the article acceptance or rejection will be informed to author within 21 to 30 days of initial submission whereas the preliminary quality check result will be acknowledged within 24 to 48 hours of initial submission.

Journal of Clinical & Cellular Immunology- Open access using online manuscript submission, review and tracking systems of Longdom Publishing SL for quality and quick review processing.

Authors can submit manuscripts and track their progress Editorial Manager System is an online submission and review system. Authors can easily track their manuscript status through the Editorial tracking system easily. Reviewers can download manuscripts and submit their opinions. Editors can manage the whole submission /review /revise /publish process. Publishers can see what manuscripts are in the pipeline awaiting publication. E-mail is sent automatically to concerned persons when significant events occur.

In 2020, JCCI has opted to use social networking platforms such as Twitter, Linked In, and Facebook to interact with authors, reviewers and editors along with the public and renowned professionals. Journal is having more than 300 followers in twitter where the recent issues regarding Immunology Research are posted on daily basis. For easy contact of authors JCCI has provided with whatsapp so that for any queries or concerns authors can easily contact editorial assistant. Along with these we are having the LinkedIn account.

In 2020, JCCI has completed a decade in publication history with the support of authors and their research works. In these 10 years, the articles were published with rapid peer-review process and we are expecting to do so in future.

Moreover, we would like to thank our readers for their support. We are having more than 3500 readers globally and this will be only possible with open access journals.
