I am pleased to introduce Immunological disorders & Immunotherapy a rapid peer reviewed Journal which includes immune disorders caused by genetic variation related to monogenic as well as polygenic disorders, due to immune system over expressive or deformities, wide range of congenital or acquired disorders.. I am pleased to announce that, all issues of volume 4 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online during the year of 2019.

The Journal aims to flourish and covers all concepts in the fields of Cell Mediated Immune Disorder, Immune System boosters, Tumor Immunology, Immune mechanisms, Immunodeficiency disorders , Autoimmune disorders ,AIDS, HIV, Congenital disorders, Infectious diseases and Postnatal disorders.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of RefSeek, Hamdard University, EBSCO A-Z .

During the calendar year of 2019, IDIT received a total of 20 manuscript, out of which 14 articles (70%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2019 around 6 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 1 issue of Volume 4 published during the year 2019, a total of 6 articles were published of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Globally articles have been accessed by the research scientists and also cited.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Associate Editors: Tobias Kaeser (Germany), Cremona Tiziana Patrizia (Switzerland), Hans Niessen (Netherlands) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant: Satish Gupte, Magdy Mohamed Zedan and Xiaowei Liu, in bringing out issues of IDIT in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of IDIT, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of IDIT and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 5 of IDIT in scheduled time.
