

Editor's Note 2020

Dear Readers,

I feel pride to give you some insights about the Journal of Tourism and Hospitality. It is one of the successfully running journals in an open access field. The journal always strives to bring to the forefront, the frontiers in the industry with major focus on the current happenings and research trends.

With the overwhelming support of the editors, reviewers and contributing authors, the journal has released several issues of articles since the year 2012 to till date. At present, we are in the 9th volume and we had compiled good number of articles for issue releases. Journal of Tourism and Hospitality provides the rapid bimonthly publication of articles.

In this year, we are aiming to release few special issues articles on special topics such as Impacts on Tourism Management, Financial Issues in the Hospitality and Tourism Sectors, many more in order to motivate and encourage authors to come up with their innovative research ideas. Journals gives importance to the quality articles, all the articles are subjected peer review process. A very good number of readers are visiting the journal website for the latest research published on Tourism and Hospitality and to refer the published content for conceptualizing their research study, deriving research hypotheses, case reports and validating their contributions.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Dr. Keith H. Mandabach, Biswaranjan Paital, Joyce Pittman, who always been active participant during the publication process, overseeing the peer review process, contributing editorials to the journal regular issues and moreover their valuable suggestions for the smooth functioning of the journal, the support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of JTH in time. I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of JTH for their constant efforts towards journal growth. We look forward to work together in the same spirit in near future also.

Regards
