Trend towards Aesthetic Surgeries Strategy in Modern World

For the second successive year since the 2008 emergency, the Spanish beauty care products showcase has come back to development. All categories of products are increasing, and the country also recorded a strong jump in exports. The demand for perfumes and cosmetics in Spain grew by 3.5% in 2017 compared to the previous year. The market is experiencing a second consecutive year of growth after the collapse that followed the 2008 crisis. All the traditional retail channels are growing, with the highest growth recorded by pharmacies (+5.5%). Mass retailers still hold the higher share of the market (47%), followed by pharmacies (22%) and selective retailers (21%). Other channels, such as direct retails, beauty salons and hairdressing salons, account for 10% of sales.

Where are new drugs coming from?

The European countries, with Portugal and France in the lead, account for 60% of Europe's beauty products exports, followed by the Americas (18%), in particular the United States, Mexico and Chile, then by the Middle East (6.5 per cent), Asia-Pacific (5.6 per cent) and Africa (5 per cent).

In recent years, the market for Cosmetology has seen significant growth directly on the back of the increasing number of procedures for cosmetology.
