With the steady course of our renowned editors we try to transform into the best. The activity of a publication administrator isn't straightforward; to sum up "An editor's activity is definitely not a happy one." Every day our editors are gone up against with choosing problematic choices about which articles can be dispersed in the journal and add to improving assessment. We see the essentialness of conveyance therefore we assess articles on the idea of the investigation, examination, data presentation, and making. All articles must have the support of the correct ethics leading body of trustees and follow the best investigation practices. There are a couple of upgrades during the decade that have been noteworthy examples in conveyance. The snappy addition in the availability and speed of the Internet and compact correspondences has been a noteworthy supporter of fast circulation. Access has now wandered into an enormous number of the remotest bits of the world to connect with more researchers. We advance our scholars work through customary tweets on twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn. We thank the total of our makers, article board people, investigators, and staff who have made the earlier decade powerful for the journal. In the next decade, we center to improve the quality and validness of the data circulated in our journal. We long for quality papers that address pharmaceutical sciences needs and are written in English to an overall standard. Papers that are of a high intelligent and good standard with appropriate quantifiable examination. If it's all the same to you work with us to achieve our dream and the disperse quality assessment on journal of Leukemia.
