INTRODUCTION

In the area of identity and diverse holding identity communality as well as the consideration of the respective members of the same community and beyond, currently various theories, perspectives, school of thoughts as well as the philosophical ideology that targets to incorporate the issue of diversity, diverse identity together with pluralily stating of the same diverse identity as if encouragingly taking into account and the avowed theories have been built as the new creative act (7Meseret Bekele, 2021; 9Meseret Bekele, 2020; 10Meseret Bekele, 2020). In such a way, others such as works in the area of diversity issue taking hold the way taking to embrace diverse identity usually stating possibly issued as officially as an open public venture. In case of such diversely existing acquired identity could likely well mentioned based on the philosophical and theoretically guideline with own fundamental assumption and philosophical principle as a guideline to be taking hold (7Meseret Bekele, 2021). For the same area acquiring diverse identity including the way those diverse identity incorporated into diversity democracy in inclusive way as if also taking into consideration in different but few works taking into account while the development of theories as well as philosophical ideology taking into place (2Meseret Bekele, 2020; 10Meseret Bekele, 2020). In the same area, identity transformation as well as cohesion building coming up with different other independent theories of various kinds (5Meseret Bekele, 2020). For the sake of mentioning as an open public officially as well as incorporation of the same diversity of identity into implementation to fully realize not only the objective related to upholding but also recognition, respect, preservation couple with the preservation of human and democratic rights as if positivity and positive attitude cultivating towards any diversity, diverse identity as well as every reality exist among diverse identity constituting community of any as well as also respective community members taking into consideration as if obliged. On the other side, taking holding of building toleration among diverse identity having of any community as well as taking into consideration each and every respective members of the same respective community and beyond including the way the usually formerly hampered cultural elements to be healed based on the need and demand of the respective community as cultural restoration as if based on the acquired identity of any whether the case communally exist societal norms, languages as well as others as if also up holding the needed and required competences belongs to individual members of the same and other respective community as if for the case of realization of the former recognition and toleration building up based on positivity cultivation as if also among most importantly taking into account in formerly conducted studies in line to diversity and diverse identity (3Meseret Bekele, 2021; 6Meseret Bekele, 2021; 8Meseret Bekele, 2020). Couple with this, consideration bearing any reality among any community that exist elsewhere as the case of such reality consideration bearing equally needed as might lead to the preservation of human and democratic right as well as well reasonably cultivating and preserving the harmonized livelihood leading possibly resulted (9Meseret Bekele, 2020). In other similar interpretation as if the former usually possibly resulted as to the way cultivation of developing peaceful coexistently livelihood leading that might requires its upholding and taking into consideration from planning to implementation projects with progression taking hold in line with global dynamism specially whether the case of taking into holding contemporary globalization as well as various internal and external influence bearing factors that locally or internationally (3Meseret Bekele, 2021; 7Meseret Bekele, 2021; 11Meseret Bekele, 2021). As to such area of stating and others taking into consideration in various areas as if aim building while mention as well as to issue the formerly well un done area of consideration of diversity and diverse identity in relation to stating the upholding either single in case of normative as well as bi-identity mentioning in case of additive theory as well as submissive based stating several acquired identity as if still coming up with identified gap formerly that usually filled with in this new study as the major area of consideration giving in this creative work. For the same purpose, this study coming up with the following study objectives i) to develop identity theory in the area of stating identity with upholding aim taking into consideration ii) to reasonable justify the major developed theories iii) to analyze the conceptual ideal of the developed theories

Result and discussion

Overview on the area of developed theory

Stating identity must generally accompany with its own aim. In general as to such aim building theoretically as if must be taking hold in the case of handling diversity, diverse identity couple with humanity issue as violation human right strongly interrelation with the ill conservation and ill preservation of the reality on the ground as the reality as if diverse with in a community as well as intercommunity cases of taking into consideration. Likewise, the emblematic aim of identity stating usually taking into consideration of combating prejudice, stereotype, chauvinism, inappropriate favoritism, discrimination, nepotism, partiality, inappropriate handling of necessary correctional taking holding, violation of human right, etc against identity acquiring of any of any that up hold elsewhere across the globe either taking hold personally by private individuals as well as up hold communally by certain community.

For the aforementioned purpose of combating various mentioned negative perception towards identity of any totally or equally to come up with certain correctional means of past mismanagement of identity of any including the holders of the same and other identity as if the paper coming up with new area of theory for the purpose of the same correctional and other area of concern taking into account. For the same purpose to come up with certain correctional justification, the following area of theory development comes to being. That is to mean while advocacy of stating identity in appropriate way as well as possibly universalized way as if taking into consideration with its own aim of positive bearing impact ensuing including injustice and other adverse practices correctional and beyond as if obliged. In such case, stating identity usually coming to being with its own appropriate aim taking into consideration that might fill the gap exist or created and resulted due to paucity of officially stating certain types of identity in appropriate and legalized way as the case also requires its own appropriate justifiable claim based on theoretical principle. In other words, certain latent or manifest inappropriate result might be resulted if justifiably stating only single among acquired as well as plurality mentioning if not allowed as general view of taking into account.

In such case bi-identity considerably coming up with justifiable reasonable assumption to make allow not only acquiring but also stating both concurrently with purposeful aims either correctional aim having or combating upcoming negative perception of discrimination and beyond. As to such aim building based on its own theory as well as theory based in justifiable way as if must be consideration taken. In such case, saving any identity taking holding from the above negatively impacting perception up holding and perceiving in such a way as if among the consideration given area of the advocacy and building theory in the same area. for the purpose of this study, usually the formerly built theories with the purpose of justifiable bearing guideline and fundamental assumption towards stating acquired identity in appropriate and as a public either the case acquired single identity or beyond must followed by building theory to show the aim and positivity that resulted from appropriately stating a sort of identity to come up with another justifiable principle and philosophical ideal to strength not only the considerable area in this study but also the claim of stating within the aforementioned former study up holding. Furthermore, universalizing the ideal possibly issued as usually pluralism and diverse identity exist elsewhere across the globe must be positively seen, promoted based on equality, justice, free will of the holders of the same or other identity as if individual person or communally exist among any community. The issue of aim building might be incorporated additional theory for caution taking into account while any usual consideration giving taking place in relation to diversity and diverse identity mentioning including the way advocacy would be carried out. This is for the purpose of taking into effect of abstainism ideal of in the area of theory built consideration given as if named as Stainism or considerably abstainism itself.

As stated above, theory of identity aiming for the usually stated purpose of combating negative impact of that followed unallowing of stating certain diverse identity officially practiced publically as public endeavor either perception holding as well as target to save any pluralism and diverse identity up hold elsewhere by any diverse entity of human being as if must consideration given here based on its own theory. Among such here below exhaustively analyzed.

CORRECTIONISM THEORY OF IDENTITY

This theory states that identity assimilation and hampering either systematically or coercively taking hold towards especially among such the usual target of merging identity by the name of sameness unity based state formation as well as building afterwards. As such, this must correctively accurate and judging sameness unity of assimilation carried out including propaganda must be consideration given as the one that negatively impact bearing on the same or other identity taking hold as if elsewhere exist. As injustice somewhere easily reach some other places as if taking holding the same corrective judgment whether the case taking place nearby to the considerable diverse identity having taking hold as the major stakeholder as if national at the local level or the case of internationally exist entity at the global context.

The same theory stated that correcting the way past in justice bearing negative perception towards certain identity or diverse identity must be issued. The ideal of this theory tried to state as the method correction work engagement based on awareness creation, long term education service delivery including illiteracy campaign of the same area of adult education and lifelong learning. For this purpose correctional work engagement might be followed by compensation delivery not to the formerly disadvantaged identity holding group of community or individual elite formerly encountered injustice but work engagement bearing of the same area of activities as well as appropriate campaign bearing guideline of the same project how to be handled including the national government body as well as including the ruling class elites regime holding that consideration given such issue of aim delivery. Among such issue of campaign constructing, building the guideline, fundamental assumption, designing plan on the same area and beyond as if must be consideration given while motivational compensation taking holding well payment for the professionals engagement on such work projects as well as the way realization taking hold.

ACCEPTIANISM THEORY OF IDENTITY

Accepting all as of sameness to submissive identity based assumption and philosophical understanding if appropriately handled by the usual taking holding regime holders if damage and hampering might be un exist. However, damaging in a systematical method by the name of political propaganda of the case of national unity, territorial integrity, economic growth over human right preservation as formerly seen across the globe in several areas and with in several countries as if must be banned legally, not only at local level in separate way but also at global level and internationalizing its legality as if obliged. Sometimes legality building considerably that can lead to detachment from the considerable international participation based on sanction taking holding as if possible among the to be considerable to way in the lane of the whole exist identity taking holding with partitionism and divisibility inculcation into the minds of citizens elsewhere exist across the globe. In such case being from local level based on nationally as exist country level as if possibly but the case must taking hold at international level including not only based on the usual advocacy of its universalizing but also want into realizing to put it into effect in practical way as if must be considerably taking into account as if also elsewhere advocacy campaign usually possible through media, discussion and talking around the table including venue based discussion from local level at the grassroots level to the international level must be issued as a major agenda taking hold, however, usually for political propaganda as among the debate majorly exist taking into consideration within among few countries but labeling of lacking guideline as theory based frequently in the midst of the usually stating to not to be taking hold in pragmatic way but finally the decision taking hold as a normally exist way as a norm of stating only a single identity among the majorly the respective taking hold population controlled and acquired. As to such, this theory more beneficial to taking hold perceptual acceptance that alongside or equivocally followed by more correctional injustice bear same other places largely without distinction as if stating usually hopefully coming up with accepting positively for all exist diverse identity as well as diverse having community usually must be possibly the elements taking into consideration as the resultant consequence.

STAINISM THEORY OF IDENTITY

Stainism is the theory that states whether the case of normativism on the case of sameness and else consideration given as well building pluralism and diversity issue as well also propaganda of submissive theory of identity the handling diversity consideration given as perfectionism as if must be forgotten consideration given as correctiveness agenda of totality in a basket of totalitarianism means of advocacy must be banned.

For the case of appropriately handling this diversity and diverse identity in harmonizing way as if building peacefully coexistently with in diversity and pluralism as if at least at initial phase diversity and diverse identity taking holding federalism or if not the latter cofederalism for as if the major appropriate political state structure.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

The study incorporates various theories identity in relation to stating own acquired identity as well couple with the aim of stating. In such way the most important issue of consideration given theories within the study taking hold inclusively correctionism theory of identity, acceptianism theory of identity as well as stainism theory in the same area of taking into account. In such way the first one stresses on the issue of correctional taking holding in the area of identity while mentioning the same aim of correctional issue taking holding and realization of the same taking hold as if the major issue that consideration given. In the second one acceptianism as if taking into issue of the area of the way identity of stating either for the acquired single identity as well as beyond either by identity and beyond in the case of normative and submissive theory of stating identity taking holding.
