EDITORIAL

Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning. Journal of Diabetes Case Reports (ISSN: 2572-5629) is growing continuously. It is our pleasure to announce that during year 2019, all issues of volume 04 were published online on time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of Index Copernicus, Google Scholar, EBSCO A-Z, RefSeek, Hamdard University receiving funding from a funding organization that is included on the list of PMC and Research Funder Policies or authors having NIH grant were submitted to PubMed.

During 2019 around 05 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. A total of 05 articles were published (at an average of 2 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world.

Journal of Diabetes Case Reports also announces its new association with LongDom group for Archiving, Journal maintenance, financial purpose and support.

However the journal will be running its original website <https://www.longdom.org/diabetes-case-reports.html> parallel for Editorial and review work process so as to maintain its highest standard of scientific work.

Association with LongDom group has increased Readership Metrics (By Google Analytics) of Diabetes Case Reports which can be accessed at Google Analytics Metrics for the Journal of Diabetes Case Reports

In order to create awareness regarding the current research in the field of Diabetes I have posted all the 2019 articles on the social media such as twitter which ultimately helps to gain more citation and page views and publicity of our journal.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Editor: Hiroshi Bando (Japan), and Matthew Reaney (UK), Shyam-Sundar Nandi (USA) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistants who helped in bringing out issues of DCRS in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of DCRS, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of DCRS and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 05 of DCRS in scheduled time.
