Prejuvenation effects of the multi-modality approach: An image article

Christiana Williams

Longdom Publishing, Avenue Roger Vandendriessche, 18, 1150 Brussels, Belgium

Figure 1: The multi-modality approach is a successful form of prejuvenation that works by inhibiting the level of melanogenesis and enhancing the condition of the skin (resulting in a decrease in hypermelanosis). Millennials who are pursuing prejuvenation may then prefer to undergo a similar treatment to resolve their skin issues.